

Consequences reduction on the amount of the benefit

Pensioners of PCN have already received a letter about the consequences the reduction will have on their benefit. The amount in the letter is explicitly an indication. The calculation in the letter does not take into account the tax that is paid over the benefit. If tax is charged on the benefit, the net consequences of the reduction will be usually less than what is mentioned in the letter.